BASIC INFORMATIONS

Nationality: Italian.

EDUCATION

10/2011 Bachelor degree in Chinese language at Ca' Foscari University, Venice (Italy).

10/3/2016 Master degree in Chinese language at Ca'Foscari University, Venice (Italy). Mark is 110/110.

LANGUAGES

Ancient Greek: good knowledge.
Chinese: good level, both written and spoken.
Czech: B2 level, both written and spoken.
English: B2 level, both written and spoken.
Estonian: B2 level, both written and spoken.
French: very good understanding of written French. Good spoken French.
Georgian: beginner.
Italian: mothertongue.
Latin: very good understanding.

I love very much languages and I am looking forward to learn as much of them as I can. I am interested in studying: Turkish, Basque, Hebrew, Japanese, Finnish and Nahuatl.

MEANINGFUL INTERNATIONAL EXPERIENCES

- 2012 Erasmus in Prague Charles University (Czech Republic) for one semester (2012). Czech and Chinese language.
- 2014-2015 Tallinn University (Estonia). Estonian language and culture.
- 19-25 February 2016, Rustavi (Georgia). Erasmus Plus Seminar: "Discovering EVS world in Eastern Europe and Caucasus Region".
- 17-21 June 2016, Käsmu (Estonia). Seminar for translators.
- 22 August - 22 September 2016, Budapest (Hungary). I have worked for Hewlett Packard Enterprise.
- From October 2016 till January 2017, Professor of Estonian Language and Culture at Ca'Foscari University (Venice, Italy).

TEACHING EXPERIENCES

I have taught privately Italian language to people from different countries, which are:

- Estonia
- Czech Republic
- China
- Finland
- Russia

INTERESTS

- meeting people from different countries
- playing piano and listening to concerts
- travelling
- playing weiqi, chess and cards
- reading and translating
- writing poems and short stories

WORK OPPORTUNITIES

I am searching for any kind of job, especially:

- translator
- journalist
- teacher of Italian abroad
- researcher at University
- guide
- interprete
- ambassador
- international relationships creator/keeper