The event brought together many of the main Italian and Hungarian authorities and business entrepreneurs.

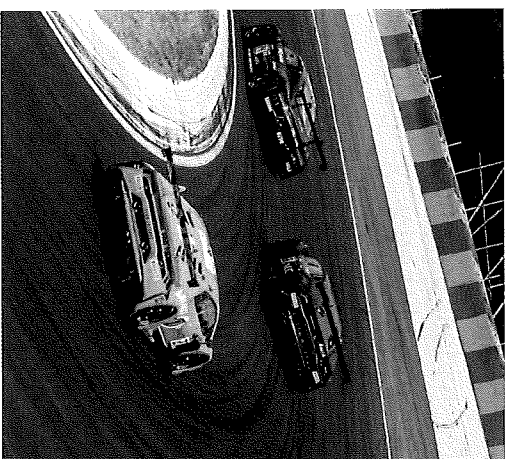

Among the guests were Italy's Ambassador to Hungary Massimo Rustico, the president of Orange 1 Armando Donazzan, László Parragh, the president of the Chambers of Commerce and Industry of Hungary, and the Chief of Protocol of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and Trade, István Manno.

Other Italian guests were the president and general secretary of the Italian Chamber of Commerce for Hungary, Ferdinando Martignago and Francesco

Maria Mari, respectively, the director of the Italian Trade Agency, Marco Bulf, and the vice president of the Italian Association of Small- and Medium-sized Businesses, Daniele Guerzoni.

As highlighted by the Orange 1 executive director Mauro Grana during his welcome speech, the event represented a great opportunity to underline the good relations between the Hungary and Italy. Orange 1 has operated here for 20 years and has always been satisfied with the Hungarian environment and the high-qualified workforce, he said.

The #63 GRT Grasser Racing Team Lamborghini Huracan GT3 of Christian Engelhart and Mirko Bortolotti, sponsored by Orange 1, took third place to score valuable points and cement their grasp on the overall lead in the Blancpain GT Series team championship.

"The Italian Chamber of Commerce for Hungary felt privileged in having cooperated together with its partner Eme Kft. in the realization of such an important event, as not only it laid the foundations for the creation of future fertile economic and political collaborations, but it also gave the opportunity to take part to the world of car races," the chamber told the Budapest Business Journal.
