

ITALIAN CHAMBER OF COMMERCE FOR HUNGARY
WHERE ITALY AND HUNGARY MEET

CCIU: 30 YEARS OF HISTORY

- The Italian Chamber of Commerce for Hungary (CCIU) is a non-profit organization. It was founded in 1992 in Budapest and recognized by the Italian Government in September 1998. It joins the Italian Chambers of Commerce sited abroad, also known as network Assocamerestero. For over 30 years, the CCIU has represented the core of the integration and development of Italian-Hungarian business realities, counting almost 200 members. The latter include some of the main Italian businesses, small and medium enterprises (SMEs), banks, and consulting firms.
- The CCIU cooperates with the Italian Embassy for Hungary, the Foreign Trade Institute, and the Italian system Institution. In this way, the CCIU offers legal and accounting advice, supporting entrepreneurs and professionals looking for business partners in both countries.
- The local Hungarian companies and those already spread in the territory exploit the opportunity for development, information, and trade, assisting businesses interested in expanding their «Made in Italy» in Hungary.

NETWORK ASSOCAMERESTERO

The Italian Chambers of Commerce Abroad (CCIE) are associations of Italian and local entrepreneurs and professionals, officially recognised by the Italian Government in 1970, which operate to foster the internationalisation of Italian companies and promote 'Made in Italy' products worldwide.

Activities:

- a strong ability to understand and analyse international markets, the result of their roots in foreign territories and their ties with local business communities and institutions;
- a particular predisposition for direct relations with companies, due to their nature as associations of entrepreneurs at the service of other entrepreneurs;
- a marked propensity to work according to parameters of effectiveness and efficiency typical of a business, a necessary requirement for offering competitive services on the market.

EU-CHAMBER PRESIDENCY

The CCIU is a member state of The EU-CHAMBERS Association which was founded in 1994 to boasts a European cooperation that lasted for 30 years. In January 2024, the CCIU President, Mr. Bernardino Pusceddu, took over the rotating yearly Presidency.

- The main focus has been to identify the challenges and the opportunities that the collaboration between the Chambers of Commerce faces during a diversified program of events, emphasizing the commitment of the EU-Chambers Members toward a successful 2024.
- The cooperation between the EU-Chambers of Commerce addresses economic and commercial challenges in an increasingly European and worldwide context.

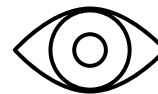

MISSION

- Thanks to our members and our extensive network of partners, we offer vital information, contacts and tailor-made assistance to companies and organisations exploring the prospects of bilateral trade between the two countries.
- We bring businesses together and facilitate meaningful connections between business leaders in Italy and Hungary and provide in-depth knowledge as well as tailored assistance to companies exploring bilateral trade and investment prospects between Italy and Hungary, thanks to our extensive network of associates and partners.
